

LANDSCAPE AND HERITAGE STUDIES

In collaboration with CLUE (Research Institute for the Heritage and History of Cultural Landscapes & Urban Environment), VU University Amsterdam

LHS is an English-language series about the history, heritage and transformation of the natural and cultural landscapes and built environment. The series aims at the promotion of new directions as well as the rediscovery and exploration of lost tracks in landscape and heritage research. Both theoretically oriented approaches play an important part in the realization of this objective.

Proposals welcomed

LHS welcomes both monographs and edited volumes, theoretically oriented approaches and detailed case studies, dealing with:

- The interactions between physical and material aspects and processes of landscapes and landscape experiences, meanings and representations.
- Perspectives on the temporality and dynamic of landscape that go beyond traditional concepts of time, dating and chronology.
- The urban-rural nexus in the context of historical and present-day transformation of the landscape and the built environment.
- Multidisciplinary, integrative and comparative approaches from geography, spatial, social and natural sciences, history, archaeology and cultural sciences.
- The conceptualization and musealisation of landscape as heritage.
- The role of heritage practices in the transmission, design and transformation of (hidden) landscapes and the built environment.
- The appropriation and transformation of sites, places, destinations, landscapes, monuments and buildings, and their representation and meaning in distinct cultural context.
